

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before this November's election is unfair and unethical.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, fairness is disregarded, and replaced by the private agendas of these companies.

Please rethink airing this documentary. Thank you.